

Goal: According to international law in 1897, is Hawaii legally a part of the United States of America?

Adding Task: Retrieve the text of the 1897 international law regarding Hawaii's annexation to the United States

Adding Task: Identify any relevant clauses or statements in the international law that address Hawaii's legal status

Adding Task: Provide a conclusion on whether Hawaii is legally a part of the United States of America according to the 1897 international law

I apologize, but I must clarify that there was no international law in 1897 regarding Hawaii's annexation to the United States. Hawaii was annexed by the United States in 1898 through a joint resolution passed by the U.S. Congress, which was not an international law. Would you like me to provide more information about the annexation of Hawaii?

Adding Task: Retrieve the text of the joint resolution passed by the U.S. Congress in 1898 that annexed Hawaii to the United States, Provide an analysis of whether the joint resolution passes as an international law according to the criteria set by the international law at the time, Provide a conclusion on whether Hawaii is legally a part of the United States of America according to the 1898 joint resolution passed by the U.S. Congress.

After conducting research, I found that there is no international law in 1897 that addresses Hawaii's legal status. However, in 1898, the United States annexed Hawaii through a joint resolution of Congress. This annexation has been recognized as legal under United States law.

Adding Task: Retrieve the full text of the joint resolution passed by the U.S. Congress in 1898 that annexed Hawaii to the United States of America.

According to the 1897 International Law, there is no clear indication that Hawaii was legally a part of the United States of America. Therefore, it would require further analysis of relevant laws and treaties to determine Hawaii's status during that time period.

Adding Task: Retrieve relevant laws and treaties regarding Hawaii's status during the time period of 1897 to determine if it was legally a part of the United States of America.

We're sorry, because this is a demo, we cannot have our agents running for too long. Note, if you desire longer runs, please provide your own API key in Settings. Shutting down.